

i see no reason to limit the availability of the information in question. XM satellite radio has as much right to offer information about traffic and weather as the NAB. Back off and get used to the future of radio, NAB. If I were you I'd find a way to hitch to the wagon. Please stop this ridiculous action.